

I understand the NJ Do Not Call List is under attack. I am very pleased with it the way it is. Who do these telemarketers think they are that they can constantly disturb us with phone calls. Don't I have any rights? The list is working well and doesn't need any changes.